Trekking around Manaslu circuit offers quite a unique opportunity to experience a reasonably untouched region of Nepal. This region sees few trekkers, which makes the visit here more exclusive and unspoiled. Manaslu, open for trekking since 1991, provides spectacular beauty along the border of Nepal and Tibet. It is now a controlled trekking route, allowing organized trekking group's special permits to gain entry into this region to venture round its spectacular Manaslu circuit.

Manaslu has a unique environment, which is exceptionally rich in biodiversity. This factor has made this region one of the finest tourist destinations of Nepal for many years. The majestic Himalayan ranges in this area consist of cultural diversities and natural scenery with high-altitude romantic glacier lakes and fascinating flora and fauna. The natural features of Manaslu makes it more fascinating to visit this region of Nepal.

This region's features have made it one of the most attractive places of Nepal. The Manaslu trekking route is less crowded and provides essential facilities to the trekkers. The trekkers get to eat the local eateries and accommodate in the most rudimentary spaces. This gives them insight into the local village life of Nepal. This is also one reason that makes trekking in this area pristine and worthwhile.

i DETAILED ITINERARY

After breakfast, we follow the trail alongside the Dudh Koshi River while crossing suspension bridges along the way. After hiking for a while, we come upon Sagarmatha National Park and go through entry permit verification in the Everest region. As the trek advances, we ascend a steep climb with astonishing perspectives of majestic Himalayas, splashing glacial rivers, multi-colored prayer flags, and sacred mani stones. We arrive in the charming Sherpa town of Namche Bazaar in the early evening.

The trail to Tengboche is rocky. The route descends early in the day and then climbs up to Tengboche.

Begin the trek advancing along the Dudh Koshi River. Witness the enchanting sight of the mountains along the way. Advance to Phungi Thenga, passing through lovely rhododendron forest. On moving further, you arrive at Tengboche with an astonishing view of Mt. Everest, Ama Dablam, Lhotse and Nuptse. The stunning views of lush rhododendron forest, glacier, rivers, and monasteries along the trek is rewarding.
